

As a resident in Richmond I often have to drive to Washington DC for business. XM allows me to monitor traffic and weather for the area BEFORE I get anywhere near the area (i.e. can't get local radio). Also, if normal radio broadcasts in DC are as bad as Richmond the accident reported is usually no longer an issue but radio still reports it as backed up (i.e. they don't have their act together).